Dib ugu

Hibiscus Initiatives provide advocacy, support and specialist services to marginalised migrants affected by the criminal justice and immigration systems to enable informed choices and positive change. We promote justice and respect to reduce inequalities.

The charity's work falls within four broad categories:

- Community and prisons
- International resettlement and detention services
- Anti-trafficking
- Volunteering and mentoring

The international resettlement programme provides a support service to clients to facilitate their reintegration into the community in their country of origin.

Through providing resettlement related support and practical assistance we aim to ensure the smoothest possible transition for our clients returning to their home countries. Often this can mean signposting to organisations providing support, finding accommodation, getting identification documents and passports back, helping with internal travel, liaison with families and providing resettlement grants to aid small business start-ups.

Our work is important to clients that have exhausted their rights to be in the UK, those that wish to depart voluntarily, or those who are being deported at the end of serving a sentence for a criminal offence.

Introduction

This booklet has been designed to provide you with information that will help ease your return to Somalia. Inside it you will find useful general information about your return, what to expect and a list of contact details of organisations that may be able to help with any resettlement related issues you encounter.

Planning for your return

The more planning that is done for your return to Somalia, the easier it will be for you to benefit from support services when you arrive. There are a number of things to think about before you depart the UK, such as: who will meet you at the airport? Where will you stay? Can family or friends support you emotionally, financially or help you to familiarise yourself with life in Somalia?

Before your departure, you may want to consider:

Reintegration assistance

You may be eligible to apply for reintegration assistance organised by the International Organization for Migration (IOM) as part of the EU-IOM Joint Initiative in Africa.

They can offer immediate assistance on arrival to returnees which includes a meet and greet service at the airport with onward transport, overnight accommodation, emergency medical treatment and some money for your immediate needs. They have a wide network of contacts within other organisations and can refer you to other support depending on your individual needs. They can also help you to access skills training and job fairs.

Somali nationals returning from the UK and wishing to benefit from this programme of support must be referred by a UK organisation before travelling to Somalia. Staff from Hibiscus Initiatives can contact IOM on your behalf to make an application for support. It is important that you give as much notice as possible to make sure you have the best chance of receiving support.

Medication

It is important to talk to your doctor before leaving for Somalia. If you are currently taking medication, your doctor should be able to advise you on how to source further medication. It might be beneficial for you to request a letter from a GP or doctor, detailing your condition. The more information you have about your medical condition, the easier it will be to continue treatment after your arrival.

Family and friends

If you have family or friends living in Somalia, you may wish to tell them of your arrival in case they can support you with your immediate needs upon your return. Try to take their contact details with you to the airport so that you can contact them on arrival or before you leave.

The British Red Cross provides a free service aimed at restoring contact between families that have been separated. You may access this programme by directly contacting them at:

Address: British Red Cross, UK Office, 44 Moorfields, London EC2Y 9AL

Email: contactus@redcross.org.uk

Phone: +44 (0)344 871 1111

Website: www.redcross.org.uk

Faith-based organisations

There may be faith-based organisations in the UK that can suggest avenues of support and places of worship where you will be returning. Faith-based organisations can often provide essential basic support to those of all faiths or with no faith. A good place to start would be to contact members of your local community or faith-based leaders. It is advisable to make enquiries with these organisations or communities early on so that suitable arrangements can be made for you.

What to expect on arrival

Arrival at the airport

Once you have disembarked from the aircraft you will be taken to the airport where administrative services will be carried out for your re-entry into Somalia.

Now that you are in Somalia, you may want to start thinking about being reunited with family and friends, finding a job, getting a new ID and so on.

Transport

The main point of entry into Somalia by air is Mogadishu International Airport. There are various options to travel within Somalia by road.

Buses

Bus services are the most common form of transport in Somalia. In large towns and cities, local buses will stop anywhere along the roadside and can be flagged down. Intercity buses go between Hargeisa, Borama, Burao and Berbera and cost less than US $1. Shared pick-ups are common in Somalia and passengers simply jump on and off the vehicle which is usually a truck.

Taxis and rickshaws

Taxis can be picked up from the street and cannot be booked in advance. Taxi companies such as Mogadishu Taxis and City Taxi charge between US $8-$25 for journeys within Mogadishu.

Yaasmiin Transportation Group offer taxi services around the country. Trips can be booked by phone or via their website:

Phone: +252 907 722 660

Website: <https://yaasmiingroup.com/website>

Auto rickshaws known as 'Bajaj' are half the price of local buses and prices can be negotiated.

Essential information & important documents

ID cards

The national ID card is issued by the local administration in Mogadishu. It is advisable to apply directly with your local administration office for new and replacement ID cards and to avoid third party suppliers as they are not always genuine.

You are required to carry an ID card with you when moving around the country. The ID card is also required for employment, opening a bank account, registering for a school place, buying a mobile phone, as well as accessing public services. It can take several days for ID cards to be produced. ID cards cost approximately US $17-$19.

It is also possible to obtain an ID card when applying for a passport as they are often issued together. Passports cost approximately US $110.

Driving licence

You can apply for a driving licence at the Ministry of Public Transport in Mogadishu. You must apply in person and give your full name, date and place of birth and four passport sized photographs of yourself. A driving licence costs approximately US $170. You will also need to pass a driving test in order to drive in Somalia.

There are different types of driving licences issued by the Ministry of Public Transport and these relate to the size of vehicle you want to drive - 'Grade A' licence is for vehicles up to the size of a land cruiser, 'Grade B' is for buses and lorry trucks, 'Grade C' is for double trailer trucks and heavy machinery.

Opening a bank account

If you are opening a bank account in Somalia, you will need to bring documentation to prove your identity and residency. If you do not have the exact documents the bank specifies, it may still be possible to start the process if you meet with the bank manager to talk through your personal circumstances.

There are many commercial banks operating in Somalia such as Salaam Bank, Dahabshil, Amal Bank and Premier Bank.

Accommodation

If you are unable to stay with family and friends you may be able to find short-term accommodation. B&B's and hostels can be a cost-effective option in major towns and cities. You can use the following websites, when in the UK or in Somalia, to find accommodation, however you might be asked to contact the property to book and pay:

<https://www.hostelworld.com>
<https://www.booking.com>
<https://www.expedia.com/Hotels>
<https://www.airbnb.com>

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) can offer overnight accommodation upon arrival in Somalia as part of their reintegration assistance package offered to eligible people. This will need to be arranged in advance of your flight to Somalia. Staff from Hibiscus Initiatives and some other organisations can contact IOM on your behalf to check your eligibility and set this up. It is important that you give as much notice as possible that you will need accommodation on arrival so that you have the best chance of receiving support.

Healthcare

Education options are available in major towns and cities. There is often a fee for education, however some non-governmental organisations may offer free education programmes, such as UNICEF that work across Somalia delivering basic education and skills development, as well as education for children affected by emergency situations. In schools, lower-primary education lasts for four years from the age of 6, followed by another four years of upper-primary education, where children are taught nine compulsory subjects.

Secondary education lasts for four years from the age of 15 to 18 years, after which students sit a Puntland Secondary School Certificate Examination (PSCE). If you have successfully completed secondary school, students have the option to enroll in higher education degree programs with a university. Degrees normally last for four years.

Employment and training

Vocational training is available in urban areas for unemployed adults and young people. This is usually offered by non-governmental organisations that provide support with skills training and employment opportunities, such as the organisations shown opposite:
